- Cardiovascular conditioning.
- Material handling activities.
- Physical demand level classification and progression.
- Work stimulation activities.
- Body mechanics education to focus on preventing recurring back or other injuries.
- Integrated approach of therapy and return to work.

Functional Capacity Evaluation

- Static/dynamic lifting tasks.
- Muscle strength and joint range of motion measurements.
- Cardiovascular endurance exercises.
- Assessment of work abilities.
- Correlation of test findings to work activities.

Work Site Ergonomic Assessment

- Customized work station evaluation s in office and industrial settings.
- Recommendations for modifying their work station to decrease pain and prevent injury and cumulative trauma disorders.
- Provide education to the client on equipment adjustments that can be made with rationale for making changes.
